Social Leadership for the SDGs

Social Leadership Can't Wait: Learn Your Role in Creating a Sustainable Future

Discover How Social Leadership Connects Your Strengths With the Needs of the World

No problem is more pressing than the sustainability of our planet. The Social Leadership course is designed for young adults to explore the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). You'll deepen your understanding of the critical issues we face today. And you'll learn how social leadership is the key to solving them. You'll discover the issues that are most meaningful to you by creating a personal Social Ecosystem. Everything you learn will help you direct you towards your unique calling.

Flexible, dynamic, online learning for the needs of now

The world needs new types of leaders. Learn critical skills needed to lead across borders, create partnerships, and find your true purpose. Explore course modules at your own pace, learning wherever and whenever you want. Our unique online learning software gives you total control.

You're learning online, but you won't be learning alone.

Unlike other virtual learning experiences, we help you build a network of young adults across the globe dedicated to social leadership. You'll connect with classmates during weekly virtual lessons and small group discussions.

You'll benefit from our two decades of expertise in global leadership development. For these times when we can't meet in person, virtual learning offers a nearly underlined identical learning experience. You'll be taught the same proven framework through the same engaging methods and have access to the same outstanding community. Virtual leadership courses with iLEAP will provide meaningful experiences that have the power to change your life.

Deepen your learning and put lessons into action

Go beyond learning theory. You'll create a personal Social Ecosystem to map out your values and strengths. Get access to the tools that can help find your unique calling. Then put the lessons into action to create positive change. You can help advance the world towards achieving the Sustainable Development Goals.

Global perspective with personalized attention

You don't need to worry about being lost in the crowd. At iLEAP, we limit enrollment in all our courses to ensure each student gets the attention they need. Our instructors get to know you and are dedicated to your success. We understand the challenges non-native English speakers face when taking an English language course and have developed the resources needed to help you. Plus, small group discussions give everyone the chance to take part.

You CAN make a difference

Leaders like you are needed to create lasting, impactful social change. If you desire a better future…if you want to create a more sustainable world…if you want to put the needs of the many above the needs of the few, then you need the skills taught in our Social Leadership course. Start putting leadership in action today.
